

Sarah Franklin, RN BSN
206-795-7321
Sarahfranklin107@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Seattle University, 2006

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Family Birth Center at St Joseph Medical Center, Tacoma, WA (Oct 2012-May 2014)

- Staff RN
- Duties include care of patients during labor, delivery and recovery, care of transitioning newborns, care of patients during their postpartum stay
- Completed a twelve week residency program upon hire

St Joseph Community Health, Albuquerque, NM (June 2010- September 2012)

- Home visiting nurse
- Duties included case management of first time parents enrolled in the First Born program, conducting a postpartum visit including infant and new mom assessments for program participants upon discharge home, breast feeding support and education regarding care of infants

Unites States Peace Corps, Morocco (February 2007- May 2009)

- Rural health volunteer
- Duties included helping to execute infant vaccination drives, development of reproductive health education program for women, development of health education curriculum at local schools, development of continuing education program for Moroccan medical staff

ADDITIONAL SKILLS/CERTIFICATIONS

- Speak conversational Spanish
- CPR certified
- NRP certified
- Current member of AWHONN

REFERENCES

Joyce Mejia, supervisor at St Joseph Family Birth Center, 253-426-4101

Mostafa Lamqaddam, supervisor during Peace Corps service, elamqaddam@ma.peacecorps.gov

Katy Rosebaum, colleague during Peace Corps service, 919-441-9466

Dianne Wagemann, supervisor at St Joseph Community Health, 505-924-8000